

OFFSHORE BRANCH GOLF 2011
Friday 26th August
ALYTH GOLF CLUB

It is time again for the annual golf outing. 2011 sees us return to Alyth Golf Club a real old classic. The date for which is Friday 26th August 2011.

Congratulations to Fred Potter for getting his hands on the old trophy it took a few years but he got there in the end well done. Also a big thanks' to Fred and the gang at Alyth for there hospitality, we look forward to another fine day with them this year.

Competition will be one round of Stableford for the old claret jug.

Bacon roll and coffee will be available prior to play with a high tea at the end of your round. Prize giving will take place after eating.

Cost for the day is £30.00 including golf & food. The first Tee time will be 11.00 am.

As always we look forward to a very enjoyable day in good weather and great company.

If enough people are interested a mini bus can be arranged from Aberdeen. All those wishing to play should e-mail before 11th July at imundie@aol.com

An 18-hole (6,259 yds) heathland layout, Alyth Golf Club was established in 1894. The original 9 holes were designed by the master Old Tom Morris of St Andrews with James Braid completing the extension in 1934.

Playing the course demands constant attention as a combination of tree lined fairways and diverse rolling terrain make the emphasis on precision golf rather than distance, although both are required.

Alyth's most demanding aspect however, might be it's tranquil setting. Within the pines, silver birch and heather and overlooking the nearby hills, it is easy to lose yourself in the joys of a good game of golf with a layout so conceived that you barely notice other groups of golfers.

We look forward to welcoming you to Alyth Golf Club.
