

OFFSHORE BRANCH GOLF 2010
Friday 13th August
ALYTH GOLF CLUB

Once again it is time for the annual golf outing and 2010 is no exception. This year sees us return to Alyth Golf Club a real old classic. The date for which is Friday 13th August 2010.

Congratulations to Norrie McVicar for finally getting his hands on the trophy it took a few years but he got there in the end well done. A big thanks' to Fred and the gang at Alyth for there hospitality, we look forward to another fine day with them this year.

Competition will be one round of Stableford for the old claret jug.

Bacon roll and coffee will be available prior to play with a high tea at the end of your round.

Prize giving will take place after eating.

Cost for the day is £27.00 including golf & food

The first Tee time will be 10.30am.

As always we look forward to a very enjoyable day in good weather and great company.

All those wishing to play should e-mail before 30th July at imundie@aol.com

